Greetings, Professor Gao,

It has come to our attention that the Kellogg case "Extraordinary Value Partners" (5-307-508) and the accompanying spread sheet are posted on your faculty Web site at Notre Dame.

http://www.nd.edu/~pgao/cases/EVP_Final_0408.pdf

This case is copyrighted and distributed by the Kellogg School of Management as part of the Kellogg Case Collection, and distributed for Kellogg by Harvard Business School Publishing under the catalog numbers KEL325 and KEL326. Exclusive of Kellogg and HBPS, permission is not granted to download or distribute this case in any manner.

We respectfully request that you remove said case and spreadsheet from your Web site immediately. Only the copyright holder (Kellogg) has legal ownership of these materials, and any unauthorized posting of these materials is in direct violation of the copyright. As well, it is a part of our distribution contract with HBSP that distribution be limited to Kellogg and HBSP.

We acknowledge that you participated in the preparation and writing of this case and that you might want some reference to it on your faculty Web site. You are welcome to link to the case page on the HBSP site which enables registered academic users to download a preview copy and to order the case for personal or classroom use. As well, if you are using this case in your Notre Dame classroom, please ensure that the proper copyright permissions are acquired before each use.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Regards,
Sheila Duran
