I discuss the notions of a contact toric manifold introduced by Banyaga and Molono. I will try to explain why these manifolds are interesting and describe their classification.