

Team Entertainment

While a team is traveling, the University may pay for reasonable entertainment for that team, as long as the entertainment takes place within a 100-mile radius of where the team plays or practices.

It is not permissible for a team to depart more than 48 hours prior to or to remain more than 36 hours after an event or to transport the team to another area for entertainment purposes.

The time limitations do not apply when travel takes place in the following circumstances:

- Prior to and following competition in Hawaii or Alaska.

- Prior to and following regular season competition that takes place during the University's official vacation period during the academic year.

- Prior to competition in NCAA championship events or certified post season football games.

- Prior to and following regular season competition that takes place during the University's summer vacation period.

- Prior to and following regular season competition that takes place in one or more foreign countries on one trip during the season and limited or not more than once every four years.

Also, the University may pay for a movie rental or pay-per-view movie in the student-athlete's hotel room or take the team to the movies the night before a home or away competition.

Departure/Return Expense Restrictions for Student-Athletes

An eligible student-athlete may receive actual and necessary travel expenses to represent the University in athletics competition, provided that the student-athlete departs for the competition no earlier than 48 hours prior to the start of the actual competition and remains no more than 36 hours following the conclusion of the actual competition even if the student athlete does not return with the team.

These travel expense restrictions do not apply when travel takes place in the following circumstances:

- Prior to and following competition in Hawaii or Alaska.
- Prior to and following regular season competition that takes place during the University's official vacation period during the academic year.
- Prior to competition in NCAA championship events or certified postseason football games.
- Prior to and following regular season competition that takes place during the University's summer vacation period.
- Prior to and following regular season competition that takes place in one or more foreign countries on one trip during the season and limited or not more than once every four years.
