

The Asian Indian Classical Music Society
51491 Norwich Drive Granger, IN 46530

Concert Announcement

Hindustani classical music concert - Sarod

Pandit Debojyoti Bose

Hindole Majumdar (Tabla)

September 12, 2016, Monday, 6.30PM

At: Andrews Auditorium, B001 Geddes Hall*, University of Notre Dame

Pandit Debojyoti Bose, hails from the famous musical Bose family of Kolkata. His father, Professor Biswanath Bose, a disciple of Pandit Kanthe Maharaj was a renowned Tabla teacher and performer. His mother, Smt. Bharati Bose, a disciple of Ustad Mushtaq Ali Khan and Ustad Ali Akbar Khan, and a sitar player, gave him sarod lessons at a very early age. His oldest brother Pandit Kumar Bose is acknowledged as one of India's topmost Tabla artists. He has been training with the Sarod Maestro Ustad Amjad Ali Khan for over 25 years, and he is considered one of the leading artists of the Senia Bangash Gharana of Sarod. He has also received vocal guidance from Pandit Jayanta Bose, an older brother, and from Pandit Rajan and Sajan Mishra and Pandit Vijay Kichlu. He has received many awards and performed widely in the US, UK, Australia, Russia, China, Indonesia and other countries, as well as, of course, in India.

Hindole Majumdar already occupies a commendable position among the young tabla players of his generation. He received his training from Shibsankar Karmakar, a disciple of the late Ustad Karamatullah Khan, and from Pandit Sankha Chatterjee. A graded artist of All India Radio and Doordarshan (Indian national Television), he has won numerous awards, including the first prize at several All Bengal tabla solo competitions.

Admission: FREE

We are grateful to the AICMS benefactors and members, the University of Notre Dame, and the Center for Social Concerns, for making these concerts possible.

For further information, contact: Amitava Dutt (2730928) or Umesh Garg (2722957)

*Parking is available in the part of the Hesburgh Library parking lot not closed due to construction work, on Juniper Road. To go to auditorium, enter the library from the parking lot side, exit from the other side, and walk to Geddes Hall, which is the building to the right. The auditorium is in the basement,