

The Asian Indian Classical Music Society
52318 N Tally Ho Drive, South Bend, IN 46635

Concert Announcement

Umakant and Ramakant Gundecha (Dhrupad Vocal)

accompanied by

Akhilesh Gundecha (Pakhawaj)

April 30, 2006, Sunday, 7.30PM

The Gundecha brothers are the leading exponents of the Dhrupad style of music among the younger generation and the most active performers in that style both in India and abroad. Dhrupad is the most ancient form of Hindustani classical music which still survives in its original form.

at:the Hesburgh Center for International and Peace Studies Auditorium

Tickets available at gate.

General Admission: $10, AICMS Members and ND/SMC faculty: $5, Students: FREE

For further information, contact: Amitava Dutt (2730928) or Umesh Garg (2722957)