Concert Announcement

Umakant and Ramakant Gundecha (Dhrupad Vocal)

April 26, 2008, Saturday, 7.30PM

The Gundecha brothers are the leading exponents of the Dhrupad style of music among the younger generation and the most active performers in that style both in India and abroad. Dhrupad is the most ancient form of Hindustani classical music which still survives in its original form.

Please note that the concert will be held not at our usual location, but at:

The Ballroom, LaFortune Student Center, University of Notre Dame

(The building is near the Administration building with the golden dome, the second building on the right in the quad as you face the Administration building facing North. The Ballroom is on the 2nd floor, Room 250).

Tickets available at gate.

General Admission: $10, AICMS Members and ND/SMC faculty: $5, Students: FREE

Meeting Announcement

The annual general-body meeting of the Asian Indian Classical Music Society will be held on Tuesday, May 6, 2008, at 8:00 p.m. at the Dutt residence, 51305 Amesbury Way, Granger, IN 46530 (Phone: 2730928).

The main items on the agenda for this meeting are the presentation of the accounts for the past year and elections for the Executive Committee (President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Member-at-large) for 2008. However, any other matter of concern to the members may be brought up for discussion. All members are eligible to vote in the elections and to stand for any of the positions on the Executive Committee.
