

The Asian Indian Classical Music Society
52318 N Tally Ho Drive, South Bend, IN 46635

Indian Classical Concert

Hari Priya and Shanmukha Priya (Vocal)

with

M.A. Krishnaswamy (Violin)

and

Skandasubramanian (Mridangam)

April 26th, 2013, Friday, 7.00PM, place: Carey Auditorium

Hesburgh Library, University of Notre Dame

Hari Priya and Shanmukha Priya, the renowned musical duo popularly known as the “Priya Sisters”, are among the leading exponents of the Carnatic or South Indian vocal music. After receiving their training from the renowned duo, Radha and Jayalakshmi, they are now under the guidance of Prof. T. R. Subramaniam. Since they began performing in 1989, the Priya Sisters have performed worldwide in more than two thousand concerts. Among other awards, the sisters have been the recipients of the 'Best Female Vocalists' awards from Music Academy, Sri Krishna Gana Sabha and the Indian Fine Arts Society, Chennai.

Tickets available at gate. General Admission: $10, AICMS Members and ND/SMC faculty: $5, Students: FREE

For further information, contact: Amitava Dutt (2730928) or Umesh Garg (2722957)