

The Asian Indian Classical Music Society
52318 North Tally Ho Drive, South Bend, IN 46635

A concert of Indian instrumental classical music:
Bamboo Flute

Shashank

accompanied by

Vinod Seetharaman
on the mridangam

Sunday, September 16, 2007, 7:30 p.m.

At the Auditorium, Hesburgh Center for International Studies
University of Notre Dame

Sponsored by:
The Asian Indian Classical Music Society of Michiana
The Kroc Institute
International Student Services and Activities, Notre Dame

Tickets:

General Admission: $10 AICMS Members and ND/SMC faculty: $5
Students: FREE

SHASHANK, although just 29 years of age, has established himself as a leading flautist in the Carnatik (South Indian) style of music. Performing since he was eleven, he has enthralled audiences at the Presidential Place, New Delhi, the Smithsonian, National Academy of Sciences, and the Kennedy Center, Washington D. C., the John P. Getty Hall, Hollywood, and the UNESCO, Paris, among other places, and has 32 CDs to his credit.

Contact: Amitava Dutt (2730928) or Umesh Garg (2722957)