

Summa Theologiae

Table of Contents: Part 1-2

PROLOGUE TO PART 1-2	1
Question 1: Man's Ultimate End	1
Article 1: Does a man act for the sake of an end?	1
Article 2: Is acting for the sake of an end peculiar to a rational nature?	2
Article 3: Do human acts take their species from their end?	3
Article 4: Is there some ultimate end of a human life, or is there an infinite procession of ends?	5
Article 5: Can one man's will be simultaneously directed to many things as ultimate ends? ..	6
Article 6: Is everything a man wills such that he wills it for the sake of his ultimate end? ...	7
Article 7: Is there a single ultimate end for all men?	8
Article 8: Do all other things share in man's ultimate end?	9
Question 68: The Gifts of the Holy Spirit	453
Article 1: Do the gifts differ from the virtues?	453
Article 2: Are the gifts necessary for human salvation?	455
Article 3: Are the gifts of the Holy Spirit habits?	457
Article 4: Are the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit appropriately enumerated?	458
Article 5: Are the gifts of the Holy Spirit connected?	459
Article 6: Do the gifts of the Holy Spirit remain in heaven?	460
Article 7: Is the dignity of the gifts preserved by the way they are enumerated in Isaiah 2? .	462
Article 8: Should the virtues take precedence over the gifts?	463
Question 69: The Beatitudes	465
Article 1: Do the beatitudes differ from the virtues and the gifts?	465
Article 2: Do the rewards attributed to the beatitudes belong to this life?	466
Article 3: Are the beatitudes appropriately enumerated?	467
Article 4: Are the rewards of the beatitudes appropriately enumerated?	470
Question 70: The Fruits of the Holy Spirit	472
Article 1: Are the fruits of the Holy Spirit named by the Apostle in Galatians 5 acts?	472
Article 2: Do the fruits of the Holy Spirit differ from the beatitudes?	473
Article 3: Did the Apostle correctly enumerate the fruits in Galatians 5?	474
Article 4: Are the fruits contrary to the works of the flesh enumerated by the Apostle?	476
Question 90: The Essence of Law	626
Article 1: Is law something that belongs to reason?	626
Article 2: Is law always ordered toward the common good as its end?	627
Article 3: Whose reason is it that makes law?	628
Article 4: Is promulgation part of the nature of law?	629
Question 91: The Different Kinds of Law	631
Article 1: Is there such a thing as eternal law?	631
Article 2: Is there any such thing as natural law in us?	632

Article 3: Is there any such thing as human law?	633
Article 4: Was it necessary for there to be such a thing as divine law?	634
Article 5: Is there just a single divine law?	635
Article 6: Is there such a thing as a ‘law of the stimulant [to sin]’?	637
Question 92: The Effects of Law	639
Article 1: Is it the role of law to make men good?	639
Article 2: Are the acts of law correctly enumerated when one says that the acts of law are to command, to forbid, to permit, and to punish?	640
Question 93: The Eternal Law	642
Article 1: Is the eternal law the highest conception [or plan] existing in God?	642
Article 2: Is the eternal law known to everyone?	643
Article 3: Does every law stem from the eternal law?	644
Article 4: Are necessary and eternal things subject to the eternal law?	645
Article 5: Are natural contingent things subject to the eternal law?	646
Article 6: Are all human affairs subject to the eternal law?	648
Question 94: The Natural Law	650
Article 1: Is the natural law a habit [of the soul]?	650
Article 2: Does the natural law contain many precepts or just one precept?	651
Article 3: Do all the acts of the virtues belong to the law of nature?	652
Article 4: Is there a single law of nature for everyone?	653
Article 5: Can the law of nature be changed?	655
Article 6: Can the natural law be wiped out of a man’s heart?	656
Question 95: Human Law	658
Article 1: Was it useful for laws to be made by men?	658
Article 2: Does every humanly made law stem from the natural law?	659
Article 3: Does Isidore appropriately describe the characteristics of positive law?	660
Article 4: Is Isidore’s division of human laws appropriate?	662
Question 96: The Force of Human Law	664
Article 1: Should human law be made in a general way or for particular cases instead?	664
Article 2: Should human law suppress all vices?	665
Article 3: Does human law command the acts of all the virtues?	666
Article 4: Does human law impose an obligation in conscience on a man?	667
Article 5: Is everyone subject to human law?	668
Article 6: Is one who is subject to the law permitted to act outside the letter of the law? ...	670
Question 97: Changes in Human Law	672
Article 1: Should human law in any way be changed?	672
Article 2: Should human law always be changed when something better comes along?	673
Article 3: Can custom acquire the force of law or nullify a law?	674
Article 4: Can the rulers of the people give dispensations from human laws?	675
Question 98: The Old Law	677
Article 1: Was the Old Law good?	677
Article 2: Was the Old Law from God?	678

Article 3: Was the Old Law given through the mediation of angels or was it given directly by God?	680
Article 4: Was it fitting for the Old Law to have been given only to the Jewish people? ...	681
Article 5: Were all men obliged to observe the Old Law?	682
Article 6: Was it appropriate for the Old Law to have been given at the time of Moses? ...	684
Question 99: The Precepts of the Old Law	686
Article 1: Does the Old Law contain just one precept?	687
Article 2: Does the Old Law contain moral precepts?	688
Article 3: Does the Old Law contain ceremonial precepts in addition to the moral precepts?	689
Article 4: Does the Old Law contain judicial precepts in addition to the moral and ceremonial precepts?	690
Article 5: Are there any precepts contained in the Old Law in addition to the moral, ceremonial, and judicial precepts?	691
Article 6: Was it right for the Old Law to have induced the observance of its precepts by temporal promises and threats?	693
Question 100: The Moral Precepts of the Old Law	694
Article 1: Do all the moral precepts of the Old Law belong to the law of nature?	694
Article 2: Do the moral precepts of the Law have to do with all the acts of the virtues? ...	695
Article 3: Are all the moral precepts of the Old Law traced back to the ten precepts of the Decalogue?	696
Article 4: Are the precepts of the Decalogue correctly distinguished from one another? ...	698
Article 5: Is there an appropriate number of precepts in the Decalogue?	699
Article 6: Are the precepts of the Decalogue correctly ordered?	702
Article 7: Are the precepts of the Decalogue set down in an appropriate way?	704
Article 8: Can dispensations be granted from the precepts of the Decalogue?	705
Article 9: Does the mode of virtue fall under a precept of the Law?	707
Article 10: Does the mode of charity fall under a precept of divine law?	709
Article 11: Is it correct to mark out moral precepts of the Law in addition to the Decalogue?	710
Article 12: Did the moral precepts of the Old Law give justification [before God]?	712
Question 101: The Ceremonial Precepts of the Old Law in Themselves	714
Article 1: Does the reason for the ceremonial precepts lie in their having to do with the worship of God?	714
Article 2: Are the ceremonial precepts figurative	715
Article 3: Was it right for there to be a multiplicity of ceremonial precepts?	717
Article 4: Are the ceremonies of the Old Law correctly divided into sacrifices, sacred things, sacraments, and observances?	718
Question 102: The Causes of the Ceremonial Precepts	721
Article 1: Are there reasons for the ceremonial precepts?	721
Article 2: Do the ceremonial precepts have literal reasons or only figurative reasons? ...	722
Article 3: Can appropriate reasons be assigned for the ceremonies that involve sacrifices? .	723
Article 4: Can appropriate reasons be assigned for the ceremonies that involve the sacred things?	729
Article 5: Can appropriate reasons be assigned for the sacraments of the Old Law?	737

Article 6: Are there reasoned causes for the ceremonial observances?	748
Question 103: The Duration of the Ceremonial Precepts	755
Article 1: Did the ceremonies of the Law exist before the Law existed?	755
Article 2: Did the ceremonies of the Old Law have the power to confer justification at the time of the Law?	756
Article 3: Did the ceremonies of the Old Law cease with the coming of Christ?	758
Article 4: Can the ceremonial precepts be observed without mortal sin after Christ's passion?	760
Question 104: The Judicial Precepts of the Old Law	763
Article 1: Does the nature of the judicial precepts consist in their directing a man in his relations with his neighbor?	763
Article 2: Are the judicial precepts figures of anything?	764
Article 3: Do the judicial precepts of the Old Law have perpetual binding force?	765
Article 4: Can the judicial precepts be divided into set kinds?	766
Question 105: The Reasons for the Judicial Precepts	768
Article 1: Did the Old Law give appropriate direction concerning the rulers?	768
Article 2: Were appropriate judicial precepts given with respect to the common life of the people?	770
Article 3: Were appropriate judicial precepts given with respect to outsiders?	778
Article 4: Did the Old Law issue appropriate precepts with respect to household members?	781
Question 106: The Law of the Gospel, called the New Law, in Itself	785
Article 1: Is the New Law a written law?	785
Article 2: Does the New Law confer justification?	786
Article 3: Should the New Law have been given from the beginning?	787
Article 4: Will the New Law last until the end of the world?	788
Question 107: The Relation between the Old Law and the New Law	791
Article 1: Is the New Law different from the Old Law?	791
Article 2: Does the New Law bring the Old Law to fulfillment?	793
Article 3: Is the New Law contained within the Old Law?	795
Article 4: Is the New Law more burdensome than the Old Law?	796
Question 108: The Contents of the New Law	798
Article 1: Should the New Law command or prohibit any exterior acts?	798
Article 2: Does the New Law give adequate direction to exterior acts?	799
Article 3: Does the New Law give man adequate direction with respect to interior acts? ...	802
Article 4: Is it appropriate for certain determinate counsels to be proposed in the New Law?	805