

August 6, 2007

Dear Students,

On Monday, August 27th, the Aerospace and Mechanical Engineering Department will hold the 21st Annual Graduate Student Conference. This conference will feature oral presentations and poster sessions by AME graduate students from all areas of departmental research.

If you are interested in learning about the current state of research in AME or thinking about attending graduate school, we highly encourage you to attend.

Sessions will take place in DeBartolo Hall, rooms 129, 138, and 140, and are open for all to attend. Posters will be on display in the DeBartolo lounge facing the football stadium. A conference schedule with specific subjects and lecturers will be posted on the conference website www.nd.edu/~amegsc roughly one week before the conference. There is no registration for this conference. Please feel free to attend any and all sessions you wish.

If you have any questions please direct them to amegsc@nd.edu.

We look forward to seeing you at the conference.

Sincerely,
AME Graduate Student Department Organization
