Volume: Support Bullwinkles, whenever they open up

Beat Huskies

Men of Dillon, sorry about the delay of the greatest thing to grace the bathroom stalls of Dillon Hall since the campaign flyers for the 43 freshmen that ran for class council earlier this year...the Big Red Insider! Here you'll find information about what's going on both on campus and in Dillon. If you spend a lot of time pinching wolf bait, this is the resource for you.

Campus Events

SUB Movie

"Kicking and Screaming", Thurs. 10pm, Fri. 8 & 10:30pm, Sat. 4:30 & 8pm, 101 Debartalo

The Good News: Will Ferrell is in it and Saturday's 4:30 showing is now a matinee (what that means, I'm not sure).

The Bad News: It still costs money and there's a 95% chance the movie will be stopped due to technical problems.

Browning Cinema

"Mad Hot Ballroom", Sat. 7 & 10pm

The Good News: This is always a great way to brag to friends back home about how South Bend is a striving cultural center.

The Bad News: It's all the way out at DPAC and the FTT majors can be somewhat intimidating.

Father Jenkins' Inauguration

Half days on Thursday & Friday!

If there's anyone on campus who knows how to throw a party, it's our new president, Fr. John Jenkins. If you can survive the academic forum and inaugural mass, you can party with the best of them. The inaugural ball on the quad might not live up to the infamous Father Cavanaugh's inaugural ball, but there's always a chance Father Malloy will throw a hissy fit since he's not the President anymore.

Dillon Hall Fireside

"Beating the Hell out of Dillon"-Wednesdays 11pm, Father Doyle's Room

Come talk about scripture and your faith in Father's room. He even provides refreshments. Unfortunately, due to the high number of nosebleeds in Keough, the fire department has informed us that we are not allowed to have an actual fire for our fireside chat. So again, there will be no actual fire.

Dillon Hall Football vs. Keenan Sunday, 2pm. Stepan Fields

Rabid Big Red and Kenny Cushing fans, dust off those kazoos and head over to Dillon Hall's football game on Sunday afternoon. I can promise the product on the field is better than anything the University of Washington can put together. Keenan is the defending champs and hasn't lost since 2003, so obviously they think they're pretty sweet. Let's see if we can't get more than a few guys to show up for a big game against the Siamese twin of residence halls.

Coming up: Big Red Dawg Dance/Dillon & Alumni Rivalry week

Sesquicentennial Cotillion In Tents Dance: October 8th, 10:30pm

Plans are underway for a fun-filled week of proving that Alumni sucks, so mark your calendars. Apparently, the date of the dance is the same as the date for this Vince Vaughn guy's comedy show. Even though he's only the emcee and won't be performing standup, you'll have time for both. So practice your motorboat ability and start planning to ask that girl who you think is cute, albeit a little chubby, and start getting ready. It should be a blast.

Overheard in Dillon

"Comparing Dillon Hall to other dorms is like comparing America to Latvia."
