Volume: Post-Fall Break Depression

Support Bullwinkles

Hey you guys, the Insider hopes you all had a great break and enjoyed the win over the Church of Latter Day 'Aints last Saturday. We're back to fill you in on all the happenings in Dillon and on campus and to give you a laugh or two when you're floating some timber. Enjoy...

Campus Events

Late Night with the Legion

Wed. Oct. 26, 2005 10pm-12am JACC

Come and witness what could possibly be the most confusing ticket distribution process ever. Only at Notre Dame do you have to go into a line to get into another line to get a bracelet to get into another line the following day. But hey, look at the bright side, at least Chris Thomas is gone.

SUB Movie: Red Eye

Go online to check times you lazy people
If you can't find a way to get excited about a movie with Rachel McAdams, you most certainly belong in Zahm.

Coming Soon: SUB Presents Jaleel White
(aka Steve Urkel)

November 16th, 7:30 pm

It's still a long way off, but it could possibly be the biggest name to perform at ND since....well, probably Vince Vaughn a couple of weeks ago. Listen to Urkel talk about show business and other sweet stuff. What has he been up to since "Family Matters"? Writing, mostly. Or in other words, he's been unemployed. "Did I do that?"

Overheard in Dillon

Rob Arseniadis "Stovall is having the career of his life."

Tom Dobleman: "You mean season of their lives? Because I'm pretty sure everyone is having the career of their lives."

Dorm News

Dillon Day

Saturday Oct. 29 meet in the 24 hr lounge at 7:45, get back at 12 Times Subject to change
Signups for this bad boy are outside Father Doyle's room. This is a great way to give back to South Bend, the same city that cited you at that tailgate last year and evicted your friends at TC. But in all seriousness, it's a great opportunity for service and it's always fun to demolish things. See Charlie Horn for more details.

Big Red Football vs. Carroll Hall

Sun. Oct. 30 2pm Stepan Fields

Dillon Hall football is in the playoffs and is set to battle the men of Carroll Hall. We need this win to stay alive, so fan support is very important. These Carroll guys haven't seen daylight in weeks, so it's essential that we make as much fun of them as possible on the sidelines. We're expecting big things on Sunday, so come out and watch.

Bullwinkle's Debut

Sometime in the next week

Bullwinkle's is set to open sometime this week, most likely on Sunday. Now for you greenhorns, Bullwinkle's is the greatest place to pack on the pounds at the cheapest price in the greater South Bend/Mishawaka region. It usually debuts at the beginning of the year, but at Notre Dame, ordering the new oven back in August means we actually receive the oven 2 months later. You have to plan ahead here, like we didn't do with the dance t-shirts (they should be here sometime next week...hopefully).
