

Big Red Insider

Volume: Blinded by the Light

Beat Tennessee

There's so much stuff going on right now that it took the Big Red Insider the whole week to write itself! But don't worry, the Insider is here with plenty of good stuff to read about while you drop the Cosby kids off at the pool.

Campus Events

Pep Rally

Fri. Nov. 4, Meeting in 24-hr lounge at 5pm
The dorm is meeting here at 5pm to walk over as a group. This Pep Rally will be rocking and the good news is that it's not in the stadium, which means that we'll actually be able to hear the speakers this time.

Comedy Sports

Fri. Nov. 4, 8pm Washington Hall
When the Insider heard 'comedy' and 'sports', it automatically figured it had to be the Detroit Lions putting on a show or something. But we later found out that there's actually a comedy group called "Comedy Sports", so check it out. We're really not sure what they're all about and a Google search comes up with more stuff about the Lions, so we'll let you guys test this out by yourselves.

Blak Images Variety Show

Sat. Nov. 5, 8pm Washington Hall
Think of this as the Black Cultural Arts Council's version of "Saturday Night Live" except with more people watching. Zing.

Big Red Insider Tyrone Willingham Quote of the Week

"Obviously, the record says more than anything else. And, obviously, I am not doing well. But if you are saying (how is) Tyrone Willingham? He is at peace with himself." – Tyrone Willingham

Concession Stand

Sat. 8am-2pm South Quad

Need a reason not to see your family? Tired of hiding from the Gestapo at tailgates? Want to make fun of the geeks over at the Knights of Columbus? If you can answer yes to any of these questions, then you should definitely help out at the concession stand. It's the dorms biggest fundraiser of the year and if you can help for only an hour, it would help a bunch.
