Women's Soccer vs. Yale

Fri. Nov. 18, 7:30pm Alumni Field
Cheer on the defending National Champions as they take on Ivy league powerhouse Yale. We may not be as smart as them, but we're hotter. Example A: (Notice how she looks like Fulton from the "Might Ducks")

Goalie Chloe Beizer

Elden Henson

Asian Allure

Fri. Nov. 18, 8pm Washington Hall
NOTE: This is not the critically acclaimed 1998 adult film starring Sally Yoshino. For that, tune into Cinemax West Saturday night at 1 am.

Thanksgiving: Did you know?

(With help from John Two-Hawks article, "Thanksgiving Lies")

- Indians were not invited to the first "unofficial" Thanksgiving meal...in fact an 11 ft. high wall was constructed to keep them out
- A few days before the first Thanksgiving, a company of pilgrims sought the head of the local Indian chief and killed him
- Thanksgiving was officially made into a holiday to celebrate the massacre of 700 Pequot Indians.

Merry Luda-Christmas Dance

Fri. Dec. 2, 10:30pm-1:30am South Dining Hall
This really is going to be a dance to remember. We're doing a hip-hop theme, so dig out that inner rapper inside of you and get working on a sweet costume. This is the last weekend before study days and exams, so make it worthwhile and join us for some assorted appetizers and some vegetable trays from that ghetto we call the South Dining Hall. Dance tickets will be sold the week after Thanksgiving, in rooms 354 and 310. Cost for the dance is $15, which includes 2 shirts that will be here before the dance. See you there!

Dillon Hall Apparel

Work is being done to get a catalog of Dillon Hall apparel out before Thanksgiving so you can take it back to Mom and Dad during the break and get them to buy you more Notre Dame affiliated products. Products include Dillon Hall hoodie sweatshirts, gym shorts, wall flags, boxers and women's cheering shorts for people like RA Kyle Sullivan. Just kidding, bud!

Overheard by a Notre Dame recruit

"I want to major in Childcare and Development, but at USC they call it psychology. It's the same thing."

- Notre Dame football recruit Gerald McCoy, explaining how USC views Childcare and Development and Psychology as the same subject.
