World Class Coaching

Gia Kvaratskhelia

2006-Present: University of Notre Dame Assistant Coach and Escrime Du Lac Coach

1996-2006: Kanza Fencing Club Coach

2002: USFA National Development Coach of the Year

1990-1994: Member of Georgian National Foil Team

Gia grew up in the former Soviet Republic of Georgia and began fencing at the age of thirteen. After immigrating to the U.S. in 1994, he began his coaching career assisting Vladimir Nazlymov (Head Coach at Ohio State) in his Kansas City club. In 1996, Gia became the coach of the recreational Coyote Fencing Club. Under his leadership, the club became the nationally recognized Kanza Fencing Club. Several of his foilists have become top national and international competitors. Gia, at 38, is regarded as one of the top young foil coaches in the nation. He resides in Granger, IN with his wife, Dani, and their daughter, Maya.

An Assistant Coach will also be present
