

1st CALL FOR PAPERS

9TH ANNUAL BEN-AFRICA CONFERENCE

3 - 5 AUGUST 2009

ACCRA, GHANA

You are invited to present a paper, organise a panel discussion, hold a workshop, or make a poster presentation on any topic related to the conference themes below. We invite business people, managers from the public sector, academics and post-graduate students to participate. Colleagues from the international community and African countries are particularly encouraged to submit proposals.

THE CONFERENCE THEMES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1. Ethics and governance within the context of the global credit crunch – taking a back seat or more critical than ever?
2. The involvement of China and India on the African continent – what are the ethical implications?
3. Corporate environmental responsibility in developing and transition countries
4. Building an ethical organizational culture in public and private enterprises
5. Papers that do not fall within any of the above themes are also welcomed (e.g. Legal, philosophical or business perspectives on business ethics, teaching of business ethics, ethics and governance in SMEs, book reviews, etc.)

Kindly provide an abstract or workshop outline of no more than 300 words via e-mail to info@benafrika.org accompanied by a short biographical note including all contact details (preferably e-mail address, if available).

This first call for papers or proposals for panel discussions or workshops is open until Tuesday 31 March 2009. If your proposal is accepted, you will be notified by Tuesday 14 April 2009.
