

Financing Your Notre Dame Education

The information below provides general guidance for understanding the costs and resources associated with financing your Notre Dame education.

Costs: In July you will receive a bill from the Office of Student Accounts for fall semester expenses; likewise in December a bill for spring semester expenses. The amounts below are estimates for the 2009/2010 school year.

Fall Semester 2009		Spring Semester 2010
$19,240	Est. Tuition and Fees	$19,240
5,185	Est. Room and Board	5,185
$24,425	Est. Total Cost*	$24,425

Student Financial Aid: List the semester amounts of any student loan, grant or scholarship as reflected on the Notre Dame Financial Aid Award Letter.

Fall Semester 2009		Spring Semester 2010
	Stafford Loan
	Perkins Loan
	University Scholarship
	Private Scholarships
$ _____	Total Aid	$ _____

Cost - Aid = Family Responsibility

Due on or before Aug. 12, 2009 Due on or before Jan. 4, 2010

To help meet the Family Responsibility, families will typically look to one or more of the resources noted below.

Fall Semester 2009		Spring Semester 2010
	Student Savings
	Student Summer Earnings 2009
	Parent Savings / Investments
	Parent Current Income
	Parent Borrowing (e.g. home equity
	Federal PLUS, etc.)*
	TuitionPay Monthly Payment Plan
	Student Private Loan
	Other:
	Est. Family Responsibility

*In addition, other out of pocket costs will include books and supplies, personal expenses/spending money and transportation.