

Gender Studies Announcement September 20, 2007

Gender Studies Program presents:

Cosmopolitanism

Gender, Race, Class and the Quest for Global Justice

Conference

Friday, September 28, 2007 McKenna Hall Auditorium

9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

9:00 a.m. Breakfast Reception at McKenna Hall

10:00 a.m. Kwame Anthony Appiah
"Cosmopolitanism: Ethics in a World of Strangers"
- Faculty Commentator: Ruth Abbey

11:15 a.m. Q & A Session with the audience

Noon –

1:30 p.m. Lunch Break

2:00 p.m. Martha Nussbaum
"Can There Be a 'Purified Patriotism'?
A Cosmopolitan Argument"
- Faculty Commentator: Paul Weithman

3:15 p.m. Q & A Session with the audience

3:45 p.m. –

5:00 p.m. Reception at McKenna Hall

Co-Sponsors: Departments of Philosophy, Political Science, Africana Studies and The Provost's Distinguished Women's Lecturer Series

For additional information, go to:

<http://www.nd.edu/~gender/CosmopolitanismConference.shtml>

~~~~~

Fall 2007 Election Results, Gender Studies Executive Committee

The following winners have accepted the honor of joining the committee for a two-year term (2007-2009):

Ruth Abbey, Political Science

Asma Afsaruddin, Classics/Middle Eastern Studies

Meredith Chesson, Anthropology

Carlos Jerez-Farrán, Romance Languages and Literatures

M. Cathleen Kaveny, Theology and the Law School

Susan Ohmer, Film, Television, and Theatre

They join the following faculty elected in Fall 2006 for a two-year term (2006-2008):

Mary Rose D'Angelo, Theology

David Gasperetti, German and Russian

Alyssa Gillespie, German and Russian

Richard Pierce, History and Africana Studies

Ava Preacher, Assistant Dean, College of Arts and Letters

Pam Wojcik, Film, Television, and Theatre

There are also two ex-officio (non-voting) members of the committee:

Eileen Hunt Botting, Director of Gender Studies

Margaret Porter, Subject Librarian for Gender Studies

We warmly thank the Gender Studies Affiliated Faculty who participated in this year's election as nominators, candidates, and voters, and welcome the winners to their new positions on the faculty advisory board for the Gender Studies Program.

~~~~~

The Provost's Distinguished Women's Lecture Series presents Professor Stephanie Coontz

Getting Research Out to a Wider Public

(Snacks provided)

Friday, September 21

10:00 am – 11:15 am
G20 Flanner Hall

Sponsored by the Department of Sociology, Gender Studies, Department of History and the Institute for Scholarship in the Liberal Arts

~~~~~
Gender Studies OH! (Open House)

Where: 325 O'Shaughnessy

When: Friday, September 21 - 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

What: Stop in for FREE food from Breadsmith

Gourmet Coffee, Scones, Bearclaws, Cookies, Muffins and more.

Enjoy the company of good friends, good food and good conversation.

~~~~~
Another World Is Possible: Another U.S. Is Necessary
Report on the U.S. Social Forum

Tuesday, September 25

4:15 p.m.

Hesburgh Center for International Studies Auditorium

This summer, a team of Notre Dame students and faculty traveled to Atlanta, Georgia, to attend the first United States Social Forum. Nearly 15,000 activists gathered in the city that was once home to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and an incubator of the civil rights movement to help build a new movement for social justice in this country. The Notre Dame contingent gathered with immigrant rights activists, victims of hurricane Katrina, housing rights advocates, anti-violence activists, and other social justice leaders over a five-day period to search for new ways to work together and make another world possible. The Notre Dame team members will report on their experiences and discuss the implications of the Forum for peacebuilding and social change.

Following the panel, we will celebrate the release of a new book, Global Democracy and the World Social Forums, co-authored by Kroc Institute faculty member, Jackie Smith. Refreshments will be served.

With:

Jackie Smith, Associate Professor of Sociology and Peace Studies

Daniel J. Myers, Director of Research and Faculty Development, Kroc Institute and Professor of Sociology

Christopher Hausmann, graduate student, sociology

Ana Velitchkova, graduate student, sociology

Ellen Childs, graduate student, sociology

Katie Miller, undergraduate student, sociology

Sarah Van Mill, undergraduate student, sociology

Sponsors:

Joan B. Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies
Center for the Study of Social Movements and Social Change
Center for Social Concerns
Department of Sociology
Gender Studies Program
Kellogg Institute for International Studies

~~~~~

Do you want to graduate with Honors in Gender Studies?

The Gender Studies Program has recently developed both an Honor Society and an Honors Track, and we're spreading the word! If you are interested in graduating with Honors in Gender Studies, becoming involved with the Honor Society, or even just thinking about being more active in the Gender Studies Program, stop into the office on Friday, October 5th. We will be holding our (always informal) Open House complete with gourmet coffee and baked goods, and the Honor Society officers will be on hand to discuss these options.

Come by to ask questions, grab caffeine between classes, or just hang out. All students and grade levels are welcome. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact me personally or the Gender Studies office. So mark your calendars, bring your friends, and hopefully we'll see you at the Gender Studies Open House on Friday, October 5th from 9:00 to 3:00 in 325 O'Shaughnessy Hall.

Sincerely,
Jacki Larson
President, Gender Studies Honor Society
Email: [jl Larson3@nd.edu](mailto:jl Larson3@nd.edu)

Gender Studies Program
325 O'Shaughnessy Hall
University of Notre Dame
Email: gender@nd.edu
<http://www.nd.edu/~Gender/>

~~~~~

2007 – 2008 “Managing Gender at Work” Lecture Series

“Insights on Being a Female Leader in Corporate America”

Pam Carey-Mackenzie
Director of Retail Operations, Procter & Gamble

Public Lecture
Friday, October 19th
10am – noon, 119 O'Shaughnessy Hall

10am-10:30am: Brunch Reception. Open to all attendees.
10:30am- 11:30am: Lecture by Ms. Carey-Mackenzie

11:30am- noon: Question and Answer Session with Ms. Carey-Mackenzie

Ms. Carey-Mackenzie has had a 22 year career in the consumer packaged good industry and has worked for both Gillette and Procter & Gamble.

Sponsored by the Genevieve D. Willis Endowment for Women at Notre Dame, the Boehnen Fund for Excellence in Gender Studies, and the GeNDeR Studies Program.

For further information go to www.nd.edu/~gender

~~~~~