

Nanotechnology

THE LEGAL AND ETHICAL ISSUES

Thursday, March 19, 2009

3-5 PM • MCKENNA HALL, ROOM 100-104 • UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Nanotechnology holds great promise to help humankind—but it also raises legal and ethical questions that must be addressed. This symposium explores these questions as the University of Notre Dame, in partnership with community and business leaders throughout the Midwest, takes its place at the forefront of nanotechnology research.
