

Announcements, Reminders and Suggestions

ALA Elections

If you haven't yet voted, now is the time. If you are inclined to vote for candidates who are supportive of intellectual freedom, you might try using your browser's "find" function for "intellectual," "freedom," "censorship," "IFRT," or "IFC" when reviewing the candidates' statements. It takes a bit of time but it's much faster than reading every line of every bio.

IFRT Elections

Before entering the ALA election website you might want to review the list of candidates for IFRT positions. It is available at

<http://www.ala.org/ala/ifrt/ifrtinaction/ballot/2006ifrtballot.htm>>

IFRT Survey

You should shortly receive (if you haven't already) notice of our IFRT member satisfaction survey. It claims to be brief. You've all probably received surveys that say this. But in this case, it really is. Please take a very few minutes to fill it out. Your opinions matter!

Censorship Quotations

Thanks to Marylaine Block for recommending the following website of censorship quotations. All are attributed though none are documented.

<http://www.bellaonline.com/articles/art35627.asp>

Doug Archer

Editor, IFRT Report