RESEARCH AND PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

March 2005 - December 2006      Deputy Director, Center for Youth, Family, and Community Partnerships
University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Supported and directed mission of interdisciplinary, university-based research and outreach center (approximate portfolio of $2 million in grants and contracts) to build the capacity of families, service providers, researchers, teachers and communities to ensure the health and well-being of children. Directed community-based projects/initiatives focused on juvenile justice, children's mental health, positive youth development, participatory evaluation, and data-driven approaches to supporting community safety.

Faculty Affiliate, Family Research Center

2004 - 2005      Associate Director, Center for Youth, Family, and Community Partnerships (formerly Center for the Study of Social Issues), University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Directed research and intervention efforts using a developmental and contextual perspective to address questions about youth violence etiology, consequences, and prevention. Brought research-based knowledge and analytic methodologies to community-based efforts in order to prevent youth violence. Promoted healthy youth development through evaluation of community-based prevention and intervention strategies for youth.

2000 - 2004      Director, Division for Prevention of Youth Violence and Aggression
Center for the Study of Social Issues, University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Directed Division activities focused on building a community-university partnership to reduce youth violence. Major responsibilities centered on increasing collective capacity to secure resources, implementing best practices, providing education and training, and conducting research and evaluation.

Adjunct Assistant Professor, Department of Human Development and Family Studies, University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

May - October 2000      Postdoctoral Fellow, Center for the Study of Social Issues, University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Served as a member of a multidisciplinary team that authored a grant proposal to establish CSSI as a National Center of Excellence on Youth Violence Prevention. Multidisciplinary team also authored a grant proposal to conduct a multi-phase youth violence initiative including research, intervention, and evaluation components; sponsored by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.

1999 - May 2000

Project Director, Early Adolescent Transitions in Multiple Contexts (Transition to Middle School Study), Department of Human Development and Family Studies, University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Served as Project Director for William T. Grant Foundation grant (WT 95171395) examining influence of ecological context on children's transition to adolescence (Principal Investigator: Dr. Carol MacKinnon-Lewis). Coordinated longitudinal data collection involving 250 families and 10 middle schools; supervised graduate students, hourly employees, and undergraduate research assistants; trained project staff to conduct parent-child interviews, code questionnaire data and videotapes of parent-child interaction, perform data entry/analysis using statistical software.

1996 - 1999

Graduate Research Assistant, Department of Human Development and Family Studies, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, supervised by Dr. Carol MacKinnon-Lewis.

Contacted and scheduled families participating in year one of the Transition to Middle School Study funded by the William T. Grant Foundation. Responsible for supervision and coordination of undergraduate research assistants. Conducted interviews of participating families and coded measures for subsequent data analysis. Created an additional coding system for Family History Inventory measure and supervised undergraduate assistants in its implementation. Developed and adapted a global coding system for videotaped parent-child interactions. Assessed psychometric properties of new and existing instruments employed in the project.

GRANT EXPERIENCE

Funded:

Principal Investigator, A Case Study of Standards for Excellence Implementation in the Diocese of Gary. The National Leadership Roundtable on Church Management. (1/1/10-7/1/10). $8,850.

Summary: A participatory, stakeholder informed case study of the implementation process and its short term impacts. Archival materials, a local survey of pastors, and several semi-structured interviews with key project stakeholders contributed to the case study analysis.

Principal Investigator, (with Joyce Johnstone), Supporting Students' Socioemotional Wellness and Mental Health in Catholic Schools. Faculty Research Grant Program, Office of Research, University of Notre Dame. (2/1/09 – 12/31/10). $9,954.

Summary: The project establishes the foundation for a long-term research initiative focused on supporting Catholic school children's socioemotional wellness and mental health. A research trajectory is proposed to design appropriate survey tools, execute a pilot survey, conduct site visits, and synthesize both survey and case study data.

Co-Principal Investigator (with R. J. Nuzzi), Renewing Leadership Mission among ACE Leadership Candidates. The Lynde and Harry Bradley Foundation. (8/21/07 – 8/20/08). $25,000.

Summary: To reinvigorate the leadership mission among ACE Leadership cohorts, the goal of this project was to: (a) support professional administrative development rooted in the mission of Catholic education and current educational research; (b) bond Catholic school administrators more closely with the larger community of the Catholic Church, and the smaller communities of their own schools and of Catholic school leaders; and (c) foster the ongoing spiritual development of Catholic school administrators for the strengthening of their own vocation, especially the responsibility to the faith-life of their school communities.

Principal Investigator, A Collaborative Approach to Reducing Street Drug Markets: A Process and Outcome Evaluation. National Institute of Justice, U.S. Department of Justice. (10/1/06 – 9/30/08). $283,001. (Transferred to Co-PI in January 2007 and Terri L. Shelton, Ph.D. named as PI.)

Summary: The overarching purpose of this project was to conduct a process and outcome analysis of a novel, police- and community-driven strategy to address illicit drug dealing in street-level, open-air markets. The first goal of the project was to model and describe the elements, developmental stages, and operational steps of the street-drug intervention. The second goal of the project was to measure the impact of the strategy across three existing sites and an emerging site, using a matched control comparison site.

Principal Investigator, Building A More Healthy Community, An Evaluation of Winston-Salem's 2004-2005 Weed and Seed Project. Winston-Salem State University. (10/1/06 – 12/30/06). $7,272.

Summary: Weed and Seed, a community-based strategy sponsored by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), was an innovative, comprehensive multiagency approach to law enforcement, crime prevention, and community revitalization. The Center: (a) reviewed archival data such as quarterly reports and performance measures; (b) conducted stakeholder interviews with Weed and Seed partners to assess challenges, barriers, and successes; and (c) comprehensively addressed the connection between project activities and short- and long-term outcomes.

Principal Investigator, Systematic, Countywide Gang Violence Prevention Initiative Evaluation. North Carolina Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. Grant to Prevent Gang Violence, Guilford County Juvenile Crime Prevention Council, Lead Applicant, $251,366, (8/1/06 – 6/30/08). UNCG subcontract $28,000. (Transferred to Terri L. Shelton, Ph.D. as PI, January 2007.)

Summary: The purpose was to gauge the holistic impact of a comprehensive portfolio of local prevention/intervention efforts on gang dynamics within Guilford County. The major questions focused on: (a) is each individual program achieving its measurable outputs and outcomes? (b) what is the collective impact of this array of programs on gang violence prevention/intervention? (c) how well does this array of programs respond to identified community needs in actual practice? and (d) what gaps remain even after adding the current portfolio of programs?

Principal Investigator, Project Safe Neighborhoods Anti-Gang Research and Evaluation. North Carolina Department of Crime Control and Public Safety, Governor's Crime Commission. (7/1/06 – 6/30/07). $25,000. (Transferred to Terri L. Shelton, Ph.D. as PI, January 2007.)

Summary: The goal of this project was to augment research, evaluation, and technical assistance activities that were underway across the Middle District of North Carolina in support of Project Safe Neighborhoods. These activities included community-level needs assessments, evaluations of strategic interventions, gang crime incident reviews, analysis of crime data both pre- and post-intervention, and community safety surveys.

Principal Investigator, Taking DMC to Scale in North Carolina: Process and Practice at the Demonstration Sites. North Carolina Department of Crime Control and Public Safety, Governor's Crime Commission. (8/1/06 – 12/30/06). $19,184.

Summary: The goal of this project was to develop cross-site, summative data and distill a “how-to” approach for new and emerging disproportionate minority contact (DMC) sites. The Center conducted a rapid ethnographic assessment of four DMC sites featuring team-based data collection through group and individual interviews, observation, and document review. The major deliverable was a cross-site process and evaluation summary that featured public policy implications of DMC efforts.

Principal Investigator, Project Safe Neighborhoods Outreach and Best Practices. Winston-Salem State University. (7/1/06 – 12/30/06). $20,000.

Summary: To support the outreach, strategic planning, and accountability components of the Project Safe Neighborhoods Initiative across the Middle District of North Carolina, the Center for Youth, Family, and Community Partnerships: (a) maintained an informed awareness of local and national PSN programming; (b) provided PSN strategic planning and coordination; and (c) supported/assisted in developing comprehensive community engagement strategies for violence reduction.

Principal Investigator, Disproportionate Minority Contact in Guilford County: Momentum, Change, and Sustainability. North Carolina Department of Crime Control and Public Safety, Governor's Crime Commission. (7/1/06 – 6/30/07). $109,361. (Transferred to Terri L. Shelton, Ph.D. as PI, January 2007.)

Summary: The Center for Youth, Family, and Community Partnerships worked in concert with the Guilford County Disproportionate Minority Contact Committee to achieve the following goals: deepening community commitment to DMC reduction and establishing project sustainability.

Principal Investigator, Reducing Disproportionate Minority Contact in the Juvenile Justice System, Guilford County Implementation Grant. North Carolina Department of Crime Control and Public Safety, Governor's Crime Commission. (7/1/05 – 6/30/06). $145,816.

Summary: The goal of this project was to mobilize government and community agencies to take strategic actions that will contribute to a reduction of disproportionate minority contact in Guilford County. Guilford County DMC activities focused on four main areas: (a) DMC data management and utilization; (b) cultural competence used in DMC decision-making; (c) utilization of targeted preventive services; and (d) agency policy, procedure, and practice modifications to impact DMC.

Principal Investigator, Project SAFE: Supporting Greensboro's Immigrant Youth. Community Foundation of Greater Greensboro. (7/1/05 – 6/30/06). $5,000. [Note: funds reverted 6/05 since case management position was not fully covered through other funding.]

Summary: A local project comprised of school, community, and university collaborators was initiated in 2002 with two years of federal funding from SAMHSA. The funding in the proposal provided partial support to continue direct service delivery to immigrant youth and families (case manager position).

Principal Investigator, Project Safe Neighborhoods Middle District of North Carolina Research and Evaluation. Federal formula grant awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice through the North Carolina Department of Crime Control and Public Safety, Governor's Crime Commission. (1/1/05 – 12/31/05). $18,880.

Summary: The goal of the project was to support the strategic planning and accountability components of the Project Safe Neighborhoods Initiative by accomplishing three specific goals: (a) provide technical assistance regarding an evaluation plan for each city's use of PSN block grant funds; (b) conduct a case study of PSN activities in Durham, focusing on the PSN Coordinator role; and (c) conduct a process and impact evaluation of the High Point West End Initiative.

Principal Investigator, Operation Smart Choices: Reducing Youth Substance Abuse through a System of Care, Year Two. Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention: Drug-Free Communities Support Program. (10/15/04 – 9/30/05). Greensboro Housing Authority, Lead Applicant (Jamiss Bostic, Project Director). UNCG subcontract, $14,983.

Summary: The objective was to develop a comprehensive substance abuse prevention, intervention, and treatment initiative for youth and their families through enhancement of current programs, identification of new initiatives, and improved cooperation among government and non-profit agencies.

Principal Investigator, Project Safe Neighborhoods Community Outreach and Engagement, Phase Two. Winston-Salem State University, Center for Community Safety, Lead Applicant (Sylvia Oberle, Project Director). (10/20/04 – 10/30/05). UNCG subcontract, $4,995.

Summary: The project increased awareness of Project Safe Neighborhoods throughout the Middle District of North Carolina by building community support and involvement in the initiative.

Principal Investigator, Collaborative for Offender Re-Entry Enhancement: Consultation, Evaluation, and Dissemination. Winston-Salem State University. North Carolina Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Lead Applicant, (Elaine Denny, Project Director). (5/15/04 – 6/30/06). UNCG subcontract, $50,000.

Summary: The CORE Project sought to enhance youths' transition from youth development centers (secure juvenile detention facilities) back into their home communities. The Center provided (a) consultation and support regarding empirically supported intervention strategies; (b) structuring and implementing process and outcome evaluation efforts; and (c) describing and synthesizing the local program model into a suitable format for dissemination.

Principal Investigator, (with M. B. Arbuckle), Disproportionate Minority Contact in the Juvenile Justice System: Guilford County Demonstration Project (180-1-03-010-AJ-712). Federal formula grant awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice through the North Carolina Department of Crime Control and Public Safety, Governor's Crime Commission. (7/1/04 – 6/30/05). $110,000.

Summary: The purpose of this grant was to initiate a demonstration program to comprehensively address disproportionate minority contact (DMC) in the juvenile justice system through a multi-year effort that includes planning, assessment, intervention, and evaluation components. The Center worked collaboratively with stakeholders to: achieve consensus on DMC issue definition, collect and analyze local DMC data, and plan DMC prevention and intervention activities.

Principal Investigator, (with M. B. Arbuckle), Guilford County Disproportionate Minority Contact Demonstration Project: Project Coordination (180-1-02-001-AJ-212). Federal formula grant awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice through the North Carolina Department of Crime Control and Public Safety, Governor's Crime Commission. (1/15/04 – 6/30/04). $20,170.

Summary: In cooperation with the Governor's Crime Commission's Disproportionate Minority Contact Committee, Guilford County began the process of both short- and long-term planning to address DMC in Guilford County.

Principal Investigator, Operation Smart Choices: Reducing Youth Substance Abuse through a System of Care. Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention: Drug-Free Communities Support Program. (1/1/04 – 12/30/04). Greensboro Housing Authority, Lead Applicant (Jamiss Bostic, Project Director). UNCG subcontract, $14,894.

Summary: The objective was to develop a comprehensive substance abuse prevention, intervention, and treatment initiative for youth and their families through enhancement of current programs, identification of new initiatives, and improved cooperation among government and non-profit agencies.

Principal Investigator, Project Safe Neighborhoods: Community Outreach and Engagement. Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. Winston-Salem State University, Center for Community Safety, Lead Applicant (Sylvia Oberle, Project Director). (5/15/03 – 1/1/05). UNCG subcontract, $26,000.

Summary: Project Safe Neighborhoods (PSN) is a nationwide commitment to reduce gun crime in America. The goal of the project was to support the communication and outreach component of PSN by increasing awareness about the project throughout the Middle District of North Carolina and building community support and involvement in the initiative.

Principal Investigator (with T. L. Shelton), Youth Violence Prevention: A System of Care Model (180-1-02-001-AJ-121). Federal formula grant awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice through the North Carolina Department of Crime Control and Public Safety, Governor's Crime Commission. (7/1/02 – 6/30/04). $120,759.

Summary: The project employed a preventative, System of Care approach with youth who have demonstrated risk for violent and/or aggressive behavior. Risk and protective factor data are collected across numerous ecological contexts in the youths' lives.

Principal Investigator (with T. L. Shelton), SAFE From Violence: Supporting, Advocating, and Furthering the Education of Our Immigrant Youth (1 U79 SM54966-01). Center for Mental Health Services, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. (1/1/02 – 12/31/03). $298,661.

Summary: The project mobilized community stakeholders behind a research-based violence prevention program (CASASTART) for immigrant youth at Ben L. Smith High School in Greensboro, North Carolina. The first phase of this project was a local school-level needs assessment that highlighted some of the critical mental health issues experienced by immigrant youth.

Principal Investigator, Project Safe Neighborhoods Research Partner for the Middle District of North Carolina (2002-GP-CX-0220). Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. (9/1/02 – 8/31/05). $149,732.

Summary: The goal of the project was to support the strategic planning and accountability components of the Project Safe Neighborhoods Initiative.
