

ACMS 60690-01: Numerical Analysis I, Fall 2016

Class website: <http://www.nd.edu/~jhauenst/acms60690>
10:30 – 11:20 am MWF in Pasquerilla Center 116

Instructor: Jonathan Hauenstein (152C Hurley Hall, hauenstein@nd.edu)

Office Hours: 3 – 3:50 pm on Monday and Wednesday, and by appointment.
Open door policy as I am in my office throughout the week and encourage students to visit.
If I am free in my office, I welcome questions from students. To be sure I will be free, please send an email to setup a time to meet.

Attendance: Each student is expected to attend every class lecture.

Electronics: Please respect your fellow students and prevent your electronics from disrupting class.

Collaboration and Honor Code: Students are permitted and encouraged to work together when doing homework, but must write their own papers. Copying work is not allowed. Examinations and homework are conducted under the honor code (honorcode.nd.edu).

Absences and makeup work: Students are expected to arrive on time, stay the entire class, and contribute to the class discussion and group work. Excused absences and makeup exams will be handled according to University policy. Please notify the instructor in writing (email message is acceptable) prior to the date of absence when this is feasible. In cases where advance notification is not feasible (e.g., accident or emergency), the student should notify the instructor as soon as possible.

Grading: There will be a mid-term examination worth 100 points, a two-hour final exam worth 125 points, and homework worth 125 points. Both exams will be a combination of in-class and take-home questions. The total number of possible points is 350 with a numerical break points for letter grades (A, A-, B+, B, ...) based solely on the test scores and homework. Homework is to be given to the instructor by 10:30 am on the day it is due.

Mid-term Exam: Monday, October 10, 10:30 – 11:20 am

Final Exam: Monday, December 12, 4:15 – 6:15 pm

Disabilities: Reasonable accommodations will be made for students who are registered with the Office of Disability Services. Such students should speak with the instructor as soon as possible.
