

Knott Hall Government Minutes

October 31, 2007

- Call to Order- 9:04pm
- Prayer led by Joe Gandolfi
- Big news: Knott Hall wins hall of the month!

I. Upcoming Events

- 1- Phox Phire: Thursday Nov. 1st from 6:45-8:45pm on the Holy Cross Hill.
Activities include: roasting marshmallows, drinking hot cocoa, and burning effigies of opponent mascots.
- 2- Pep Rally on this Friday, be there.

II. Knott Events

- 1- Joe Gandolfi: Concession Stand on Saturday. Sign up in the lobby because we always need help. Shifts start at 9:00am and end at 2:15pm (we made over $1300 last time).
- 2- Monday Nov. 5 is Study Abroad Night, where students will talk about their experiences abroad at 8:00pm.
- 3- More Than A Few Good Men, a gender and domestic violence awareness talk by Jackson Katz is next Tuesday at 8pm in the Hesburgh Library.
- 4- Thursday Nov. 15, Knott will be attending another Funny Foreign Films showing, with pizza and soft drinks after. Sponsored by the Nanovic Institute.
- 5- Elston Tutoring at Clay High School from 3-5pm on Tuesdays needs volunteers.
- 6- Grab 'n' Go For the Homeless: we made 75 bag lunches USC weekend. Our goal: 50-75 bag lunches every 2 weeks.
- 7- Guitar Hero 3 tournament coming up in December.
- 8- Knott Hall Apparel: we need designs finalized by this Thursday, catalogues are coming soon (26th of Nov.).

III. Open Floor: Andy Matthews: chieftains concert this February.

Corey Salvo: Jail 'n' Bail, for habitat for humanity, where participants must raise $50 to get out of "jail" on south quad.

Steve Thomas (SUB): Hairspray is this week. Acousticafe on Thursday. The Format coming soon at Legends.

Ian Secviar (Senate): Jackson Katz speech. Opinion: Domer Dollars off campus? Course Packets from Copy Shop/Online? Teach for America applications due soon.

Brojo: Good job on Hall of the Month. We have a problem with people not flushing, causing potential danger of Staph Infections. Please help with the concession stand.

Adjournment: 9:25 pm.