

TeamChicago represented by the NatHaz Modeling and DYNAMO Laboratories at Notre Dame receives 2008 ASCE State-of-the-art of Civil Engineering Award for their paper entitled, “Validating Wind-induced Response of Tall Buildings: Synopsis of the Chicago Full-scale Monitoring Program.”, it was originally published in the October 2006 issue of the ASCE Journal of Structural Engineering. The award was recently received at the ASCE Annual Business meeting during the Annual Convention in Pittsburg.

Drs. Ahsan Kareem (left) and Tracy Kijewski-Correa (right) at the ASCE Annual Business meeting