

Notre Dame Journal of Law, Ethics & Public Policy

Volume XIX Issue No. 2 2005

SYMPOSIUM ON MEDIA ETHICS

CONTENTS

FOREWORD

Foreword Loren Ghiglione 415

ESSAYS

What's in a Name? The New York Times
on "Partial-Birth" Abortion..... Kenneth L. Woodward 427

The FCC and Media Ownership: The Loss of the Public Interest Standard Byron L. Dorgan 443

The News Media and the Catholic Church... Russell Shaw 455

Newsroom Conversations About the Craft..... Don Wycliff 467

Picture Power: The Image in Wartime and the Digital Age Neil Henry 475

Ethics in Communications John P. Foley 487

Neutral or Negative, Accuracy or Appeasement: Nouns of Choice in the Iraqi Conflict William J. Drummond 509

Hollywood and Journalistic
Truth-telling Matthew C. Ehrlich 519

Copyright © 2005 by Thomas J. White Center on Law & Government

ESSAYS ON SOURCE CONFIDENTIALITY

| | | |
|---|--------------------------|-----|
| Journalists and Confidential Sources | Robert Zelnick | 541 |
| A Critique of Source Confidentiality . . . | Edward Wasserman | 553 |
| Protection of Confidential Sources: A Moral, Legal, and Civic Duty | Laura R. Handman | 573 |
| Politics, Law, and an Anonymous Source | Matthew V. Storin | 589 |

ARTICLES

| | | |
|--|-----------------------------|-----|
| The Endemic Reality of Media Ethics and Self-Restraint | Blake D. Morant | 595 |
| Where Are Our Minds and What Are We Thinking? Virtue Ethics for a “Perfidious” Media | Marianne M. Jennings | 637 |

SPEECHES

| | | |
|--|----------------------------|-----|
| Technology and the Rule of Law in the Digital Age | Bob Wright | 705 |
| Truth, Ideology, and Journalism | William Donohue | 711 |
| Neither ‘Objective’ Nor ‘Post-Modern’ | Kenneth L. Woodward | 719 |
| Four Elections and a Funeral | Marco Bardazzi | 727 |
| If Not Objectivity, How About Honesty? | Matthew V. Storin | 733 |

NOTES

| | | |
|--|---------------------------|-----|
| Regulating Televised News: A New Season for the Public Interest Standard | Mark Emery | 737 |
| Sensationalism in the Newsroom: Its Yellow Beginnings, the Nineteenth Century Legal Transformation, and the Current Seizure of the American Press | Jessica E. Jackson | 789 |