

Policy statement from the “Bulletin of Information” University of Notre Dame Undergraduate Program

Office of International Studies Section; Pg. 30

Students are required to take 15 credit hours per semester in the study abroad programs.

Students with compelling academic reasons for participating in non-Notre Dame programs are eligible to apply for a Leave of Absence for study in a program offered by another college or university. They may not, however, take a leave of absence to attend international programs in cities where Notre Dame offers its own program.