

Characterization for a class of pseudoconvex domains

Song-Ying Li

University of California, Irvine

Abstract: In this talk, I will present several ways to characterize a pseudoconvex convex domain to be a ball of several complex variables. Those include to use the potential function of Kahler-Einstein metric and Webster pseudo scalar curvature, and Monge-Ampere operator.