

Week 9

- The baby can now squint, swallow, and retract tongue
- The baby is extremely lively, moving around and sleeping very rarely
- The nerves can now govern impulses within the child's arms and legs

Month 3

Week 11 and 12

- The baby's arms and legs can now move
- The baby sucks his or her thumb
- The baby can inhale and exhale amniotic fluid
- The nails begin to appear

Week 10

- The heart has been beating now for a month
- The muscles of the torso, arms, and legs now begin to exercise

November 2005

DAY & DATE	EVENT	LOCATION	TIME
Thursday, 3rd	Putting up Crosses/Prayer Service	South Quad	6 am
Friday, 4th	Taking down Crosses	South Quad	4 pm
Saturday, 5th	Theo of the Body Discussion ~with Professor Reimers	South Dining Hall	After 10am Alumni Mass & SDH
Saturday, 5th	ProLife Concession Stand	By the CSC	All morning
Tuesday, 8th	Club Meeting	Montgomery, LaFun	8-8:30 pm
Tuesday, 8th		Montgomery, LaFun	8:45-9:30 pm
9th-11th	March for Life Registration	Both Dining Halls	Lunch and Dinner
Monday, 14th	Club Mass	Log Chapel	10 pm
Until the 24th	Project Mom Collection	Dorms	All times
Thursdays	Adoration of the Unborn Jesus	CoMo Chapel	8-9 PM
Tuesdays and Fridays	Rosary at the Abortion Clinic	Main Circle	8:40-9:15 am

Sponsored by ND Right to Life

