ENOCH AND THE MOSAIC TORAH: THE EVIDENCE OF JUBILEES

(Camaldoli-Arezzo-Ravenna, 8-12 July 2007)

Sponsored by the University of Michigan (Dept. of Near Eastern Studies) and the Michigan Center for Early Christian Studies

Sunday July 8, 2007 (Arezzo-Camaldoli)

2:15-2:45pm - Meeting at the Railway Station of AREZZO (closest towns and airports are Rome, Florence, Pisa and Bologna; they are all well connected with Arezzo (in ca 2-3 hours)

- From Roma-airport take the train to Roma Central Station (Roma-Termini; 1 hour ca) [avoid taxi or bus!], and from there the EuroStar or IC [intercity] train to Arezzo [avoid R(egional) trains!] (train tickets are sold at the airport, reservation required). To people coming from oversea we advice to stop one (or more) nights at Rome.

- From Pisa-airport take the train (or the bus) to Florence-Stazione S.Maria Novella (1 hour ca) and from there a train [EuroStar, IC or R] to Arezzo (1 hour ca)
- From Bologna-airport take the bus (or a taxi) to Bologna Central Station (30m ca), and from there the first best train connection [EuroStar or IC] to Arezzo (2 hours ca).

2:45/5:00pm - Walking tour of medieval Arezzo with Ralph Williams (Frescoes of Piero della Francesca; Cathedral; Piazza Grande; Pieve)

4:00-5:00pm – (Shorter) walking tour of medieval Arezzo with Gabriele Boccaccini (Piazza Grande; Pieve).

5:00-5:45pm – Gathering of all participants at the Arezzo Railway Station [your train must be scheduled to arrive by 5:45pm; we will wait for short delays]

5:15pm – First bus leaves for the Monastery of Camaldoli

5:45pm – Second bus leaves for the Monastery of Camaldoli

[ If you happen to be late and miss the bus, don't panic. Take (for just a few euros) the local train from Arezzo to Bibbiena (50m ca., the last train leaves around 8:30pm), and from there a taxi to the Camaldoli Monastery (around 20-30 euros), or take a taxi directly from Arezzo station to the Monastery (around 90 euros). If you are lost, call the Foresteria of the Monastery for instruction and direction, tel. 0575-556013 ]
