Consecrated in 1888, this is the center of Catholic liturgy and worship on campus. Weekend Mass times can be found on the Basilica’s website.

Campus Family Ice Arena

Opened in the fall of 2011, this large ice arena houses two rinks: the O’Reilly Family Ice Center (Ice Hockey), and the 900-seat student convocation center ice rink. The arena includes an Olympic-sized rink that can be divided into two smaller rinks to support the University’s hockey programs and those of the local community. In addition, the arena is home to Notre Dame hockey and Notre Dame ice hockey. A gilded dome, commonly referred to as “the Dome,” is made of more than 10,000 pieces of mosaic tile and can be seen from the public seating area. Visitors can tour the facility in 30-minute rounds. Tours start at the Driio Center, and there is a $4 fee per person for the tour. The facility is open to the public during the winter months. Please call for tour times. During the summer months, tours are offered at 10 a.m., 1 p.m., and 3 p.m. The arena is rarely available for public events even during the summer months.

DeBartolo Performing Arts Center

This facility features a 1,261-seat concert hall for performing arts, films, and more. Its doors are open not only to students and their families but also to the community at large. The center is part of the Hesburgh Library complex. Check the website for upcoming shows and ticket information.
