ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Although a labor of love, this book is the fruit of much dedicated effort and collaboration. No doubt, in the wistful words of Sam Cooke, "it's been a long, a long time coming." In the first instance, I would like to thank John G. Trapani, Jr., the President of the American Maritain Association, for his confidence in my abilities to shepherd this project to the end. My greatest debt of gratitude, however, is reserved for Michael D. Torre, the General Editor of the AMA book series, for his abiding support and guidance throughout this project. His constant words of encouragement and advice, besides his friendly reminders to get the job done, were instrumental in this achievement. Finally, my wife, Erin, deserves the recognition of the stalwart spouse whose regular proddings helped to keep me on track.
