FOOTBALL WEEKENDS.

A SELF-GUIDED TOUR FOR THE SPIRIT. There is an element of spiritual pilgrimage in many visits to Notre Dame. One way to experience some of the holiness of campus is to participate in the Little Way, a walking tour of the University. The Little Way is a popular pastime for students and visitors who combine walking the campus with the rosary or other prayer services. The tour takes about one hour, and it is a pleasant way to explore the campus.

START your tour at Notre Dame Stadium, opened in 1930, where the storied past of Notre Dame football meets the spirit of the present. The stadium is home to the University of Notre Dame Fighting Irish football team. Its inner halls are filled with tributes to the team’s storied past. Also in residence on campus is a community of priests and sisters of the Congregation of Holy Cross, who engage in spiritual life, education, and the heart. The priests live primarily in Corby Hall and Moreau Hall. The community is open to the public and houses Smashburger, Starbucks, Reckers, Modern Market, and Star Ginger.

NOTRE DAME SECURITY POLICE (NDSP).

This organization—dedicated to the University’s close, enduring relationship with the community—is responsible for the University’s security. The NDSP works closely with the local police department to ensure a safe and secure environment for students, faculty, and staff. The NDSP is committed to providing a safe and secure environment for all members of the Notre Dame community.
